| What is the overall deductible ?                                | $900 Individual / $1,800 Family                                                                                                                                        | Generally, you must pay all of the costs from providers up to the deductible amount before this plan begins to pay. If you have other family members on the plan , each family member must meet their own individual deductible until the total amount of deductible expenses paid by all family members meets the overall family deductible .                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Are there services covered before you meet your deductible ?    | Yes. Preventive care and services indicated in chart starting on page 2.                                                                                 | This plan covers some items and services even if you haven't yet met the deductible amount. But a copayment or coinsurance may apply. For example, this plan covers certain preventive services without cost-sharing and before you meet your deductible . | What is the out-of-pocket limit for this plan ? | $3,000 Individual / $6,000 Family                                                                                                                                      | The out-of-pocket limit is the most you could pay in a year for covered services. If you have other family members in this plan , they have to meet their own out-of-pocket limits until the overall family out-of-pocket limit has been met.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| What is not included in the out-of-pocket limit ?               | Premiums , health care this plan doesn't cover, and services indicated in chart starting on page 2.                                      | Even though you pay these expenses, they don't count toward the out-of-pocket limit .                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Will you pay less if you use a network provider ?               | Yes. See www.kp.org/mercermarketplace or call 1-877-580-6125 (TTY: 711) for a list of plan providers . | This plan uses a provider network . You will pay less if you use a provider in the plan's network . You will pay the most if you use an out-of-network provider , and you might receive a bill from a provider for the difference between the provider's charge and what your plan pays ( balance billing ). Be aware your network provider might use an out-of-network provider for some services (such as lab work). Check with your provider before you get services. |
| Do you need a referral to see a specialist ?    | Yes, but you may self-refer to certain specialists .                                                                                                     | This plan will pay some or all of the costs to see a specialist for covered services but only if you have a referral before you see the specialist .                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

Your Rights to Continue Coverage: There are agencies that can help if you want to continue your coverage after it ends. The contact information for those agencies is shown in the chart below. Other coverage options may be available to you, too, including buying individual insurance coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace. For more information about the Marketplace, visit www.HealthCare.gov or call 1-800-318-2596.

Your Grievance and Appeals Rights: There are agencies that can help if you have a complaint against your plan for a denial of a claim. This complaint is called a grievance or appeal. For more information about your rights, look at the explanation of benefits you will receive for that medical claim. Your plan documents also provide complete information on how to submit a claim, appeal, or a grievance for any reason to your plan. For more information about your rights, this notice, or assistance, contact the agencies in the chart below.

About these Coverage Examples:

This is not a cost estimator. Treatments shown are just examples of how this plan might cover medical care. Your actual costs will be different depending on the actual care you receive, the prices your providers charge, and many other factors. Focus on the cost-sharing amounts (deductibles, copayments and coinsurance) and excluded services under the plan. Use this information to compare the portion of costs you might pay under different health plans. Please note these coverage examples are based on self-only coverage.
